Tonight's Game

The Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks and Sioux City Explorers meet for the final series between the two, starting Friday at 7:02 p.m. at Newman Outdoor Field. The RedHawks are in the midst of a six-game homestand and recently defeated St. Paul in two games of a three-game series. Yesterday's victory over the Saints was the 1,000th in team history for the RedHawks. Sioux City travels to Fargo after avoiding a four-game sweep against Gary on Thursday, beating the RailCats 5-0. Ace Alex Caldera is expected to take the mound for the RedHawks, while lefty Ryan Lucero is the probable for the Sioux City Explorers.

Against the Explorers

The Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks and Sioux City Explorers meet for the final series this season, between the two teams this weekend. Fargo-Moorhead is 5-3 against Sioux City this season, taking three of four games in Sioux City most recently from July 18-21. Nic Jackson, Mitch Einertson, Zach Penprase and Tim Alberts all have above-.300 batting averages against Sioux City in eight games played. The RedHawks are 93-63 all-time against the Explorers. Both teams began playing one another in 1996 as members of the Northern League and continued matchups in 2011, after Sioux City moved to the American Association in 2006.

Broadcast Information

The RedHawks radio home is AM 740 The Fan. Scott Miller serves as the voice of the RedHawks for his eighth season.

RedHawks Hit No. 1,000

The Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks achieved their 1,000th victory in franchise history in walk-off fashion against St. Paul Thursday. Trailing 3-2 in the ninth, the RedHawks scored three in the ninth -- including a two-run walk-off home run by Buddy Sosnoskie to pick up the historic mark. The only other clubs with 1,000 wins in independent baseball are the Somerset Patriots, Bridgeport Bluefish and Winnipeg Goldeyes.

A Comeback Completed

With the victory last night, the RedHawks broke a trend that had been common this season. It took 64 games for the RedHawks to win a game by coming back from a deficit in the eighth or ninth innings. The 'Hawks had been 0-21 when trailing after seven and 0-18 when trailing after eight. The RedHawks and Canaries were the only teams in the league that had not won a game after trailing in the eighth inning.

Alberts Getting it Done

Tim Alberts has been swinging a hot bat for the RedHawks recently. In the last 10 games, Alberts is hitting .436 (17-for-39) with a home run, four RBIs and eight runs scored. He played a major role in the RedHawks' 1,000 win as well, picking up a team-high three hits and serving as the game-winning run.

Caldera Looks to Continue Winning Ways

Alex Caldera's last loss was on June 6 in Lincoln. Caldera has made eight starts since and won five of them, while picking up three no-decisions. Although he has given up three earned runs or more in his last three starts, Caldera continues to keep the 'Hawks in games winning all three of those starts. His eight wins on the year is tied for second with RedHawks reliever Joe Harris in the league.

Last Time Out

Sosnoskie Hits Walk-Off Homer, RedHawks Pick up 1,000th Victory

Written by: Andrew Pedersen

FARGO, N.D. – It took a dramatic ending, but the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks earned their 1,000th regular-season franchise victory by scoring three runs in the ninth to finish a comeback and win 5-3 Thursday at Newman Outdoor Field.

The RedHawks trailed 3-2 heading to the final frame. C.J. Retherford reached base on a fielding error to start the inning and after a foul-popout, would advance to third on a Tim Alberts single and subsequent throwing error that also moved Alberts to second. Mitch Einertson followed and drove in Retherford on an RBI groundout, tying the game 3-3.

With a runner on third and two outs, Buddy Sosnoskie picked an opportune time to get his first hit of the game.

After falling behind to a 2-2 count and fouling off two pitches, Sosnoskie drove a Mark Hamburger pitch over the right-field fence to secure the RedHawks' victory – earning the club's 1,000th win and also securing a three-game series defeat of St. Paul.

"I was trying to just get a hit unlike last night," Sosnoskie said of his final at-bat. "I was trying to go to left field and instead I just got out there on a fastball and pulled it."

St. Paul (33-31) starter Mark Hamburger gave up a two-run home run in the first to C.J. Retherford, but kept Fargo-Moorhead (40-25) scoreless for the next seven innings by allowing only two more hits until the ninth. He dropped to 4-4 after throwing 8 2/3 innings and allowed only six hits and two earned runs.

Nate Kilcrease improved to 3-2 for the RedHawks after coming out of the bullpen in the seventh. Trailing 3-2 with runners on first and third and no outs, Kilcrease came in and forced an infield flyout and a 4-6-3 double play to keep the deficit at one run. He pitched three innings, striking out a batter and walking one. RedHawks' starter Taylor Stanton scattered eight hits in six-plus innings, while giving up three runs.

Tim Alberts had three of Fargo-Moorhead's six hits in the game. Ron Bourquin had the only other extra-base hit for the RedHawks. Willie Cabrera and Dwight Childs each had two hits and an RBI, while Brandon Tripp hit an RBI double in the fourth giving the Saints the initial 3-2 lead.

Leading the RedHawks

Manager Doug Simunic

-The only manager in the history of the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks franchise, Doug Simunic returns to lead the ballclub for his 18th season. The Hawks' head man has led the team to five league titles and most recently a North Division crown last season after a 65-35 regular season performance. Individually, Simunic won a league title as the Winnipeg manager in 1994 – before he came to Fargo – and has won six Manager of the Year Awards during his time with the RedHawks.
