

Part-time Mascot (Hawkeye)

The Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks Baseball Club, members of the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball, are seeking an outgoing, high energy individual to represent our organization at public appearances and community events as our mascot, Hawkeye.

Responsibilities

- Attend parades, community and charity events and other appearances around the Red River Valley, upon request
- Be enthusiastic and have high energy at events, while also understanding how to interact with people/fans using body language and mannerisms accustomed to the Hawkeye character
- Administer proper costume maintenance before and after each event

Requirements

- Flexible work schedule and willingness to work nights and weekends
- Have a valid driver's license
- Ability to work and represent the RedHawks in a professional manner
- Have an outgoing personality, while preserving the established identity of the Hawkeye character
- Be at least six feet tall, in good physical shape and able to lift 50+ pounds
- Dance and/or cheerleading experience preferred but not required
